LYCEE CAMILLE CLAUDEL 91120 PALAISEAU

Summer Project 2022 → 1ère Anglais Monde Contemporain 2022-23

CHOOSE AND READ AN EDITORIAL

You are going to read 11 editorials written by students who are your age. They are the winners of a contest organised by the New York Times.

Your objective is to present the editorial that interests you the most next September.

Here are the guidelines:

- 1. Visit this page: read the introduction presenting the contest and the 11 editorials in order to choose the one you prefer. "The Winners of Our 9th Annual Student Editorial Contest Memes and mental health, book bans and biking: Young people tell us about the issues that matter most to them."
- 2. Fill out the worksheet that will help you present your favourite editorial.

Title of the editorial that you have selected

3. From September 1st to September 4th train to be able to talk about your choice to your class: be ready for a long turn of at least 1 minute 30 seconds and have 3 questions to interview your classmates.

Author's name, age, school, hometown, home state, country looked Copy	bulary bank: select 10 of the most necessary words and end of the in a dictionary in order to understand the article. To a simple definition for each of them, for example from the color of the color (ample)	e) editorial : an article in a newspaper that expresses the ed f the newspaper's) opinion on a subject of particular interes	•
	t the herropaper of opinion on a subject of particular interes	it at the present time

Prepasay.	are your oral presentation of the editorial. Take a few notes to remember what you want t
_
*	2. the reasons for your choice (a personal experience or interests) to make your presentation all the more lively
_
_
*	3. a reference such as a film, a photo, a book, a song, another article, that you also want to relate with the article
*	4. finally: prepare 3 questions to have a conversation with your classmates in connection with the article.
_
_
_	